
Sponsorship

Since 2012, grants from the Donaldson Charitable Trust have made it possible to award monetary prizes in honor of Dr. Elizabeth Atwood Lawrence, twice AVMHS president and a former essay contest judge for many years.

As of the 32nd annual contest, held in 2023, a total of 534 essays have been entered with 110 prizes awarded.

Our goal is to have one or more essays submitted by students from each veterinary college in North America or the Caribbean every year.

ENTRY DEADLINE

15 April 2024

The purpose of the history essay contest is to encourage veterinary students to research, write about, and appreciate the rich heritage of their profession.

All essays are reviewed and evaluated anonymously by a panel of three or four blinded AVMHS judges.

American Veterinary Medical
History Society, Inc.

For more information or questions, contact:

Susan E. Aiello, DVM, ELS
Chair, AVMHS Essay Contest Committee
724 Tanasi Trail
Townsend, TN 37882-3030
Tel: 937-499-0100
Email: susan@words-world.net

J. Fred Smithcors Student Veterinary History Essay Contest

Because History Has a Lot To Tell Us
About Our Profession and Ourselves

Dr. J. Fred Smithcors (1920–2006) was the founder of AVMHS and widely considered the “Dean of American Veterinary Historians.”

The AVMHS Student Veterinary History Contest was established in 1991 in honor of Dr. Smithcors’ pioneering interest in teaching veterinary students about the history of their profession.

American Veterinary Medical
History Society, Inc.

<https://www.avmhs.org>

J. Fred Smithcors Student Veterinary History Essay Contest

Eligibility

- All students currently enrolled in a DVM/VMD program at any veterinary college in the United States, Canada, or the Caribbean are eligible.
- Students may submit more than one essay each year but cannot be awarded more than one prize each year.
- Students who have submitted essays in previous years (and/or won a prize) continue to be eligible until graduation.

Prizes and Benefits

1st Prize	$1,200
2nd Prize	$1,000
3rd Prize	$800
4th Prize	$500

All participants receive a complimentary, one-year membership in AVMHS, which includes two issues of Veterinary Heritage, AVMHS's semi-annual journal.

Winning essays may be published in Veterinary Heritage, which also offers students a publication credit.

Submission Guidelines

- Manuscript pages should be numbered and double-spaced in 12-point Times Roman (or equivalent), including the reference list. Do not include your name or school on manuscript pages.
- Essays should be no more than 3,500 words (exclusive of graphic material and references).
- Essays must be original work, with accurately cited sources.
- Complete an entry form, listing a permanent address.
- Email PDFs of your entry form and essay (attached as separate files) to the Committee Chair by April 15, 2024 (midnight).
- Retain your original Word document for possible future publication in Veterinary Heritage.

For more detailed guidelines, the entry form, and more info, visit

<http://avmhs.org/essay-contest>

Suitable Topics

Essays should have a clear historical subject, be rigorously researched, and tell an interesting story. Only historical and veterinary topics will be considered.

Examples include (but are not limited to):

- Development of treatments, diagnostic techniques, surgery, and/or research
- Diseases
- Biologicals or pharmaceuticals
- Instruments
- Species emphasis
- Public health issues
- Legislation
- Biographical information (deceased individuals only)
- Veterinary colleges and institutions
- Veterinary medicine in literature, art, or society

Past winning essays are listed on the AVMHS Web site.