

American Veterinary Medical History Society

"Devoted to the Diffusion of Veterinary History"

Greensboro (Guilford County), North Carolina

Alfreda Wilhelmina Johnson Webb, DVM, MS

BIRTH: 21 February 1923
Hollywood (Jackson County), Alabama

DEATH: 14 October 1992 (age 69)
Greensboro (Guilford County), North Carolina

BURIAL: Lakeview Memorial Park, 3600 N OHenry Blvd., Greensboro, North Carolina
https://www.memorialplanning.com/cemeteries/lakeview-memorial-park?utm_source=gmb&utm_medium=yext
Greensboro (Guilford County), North Carolina

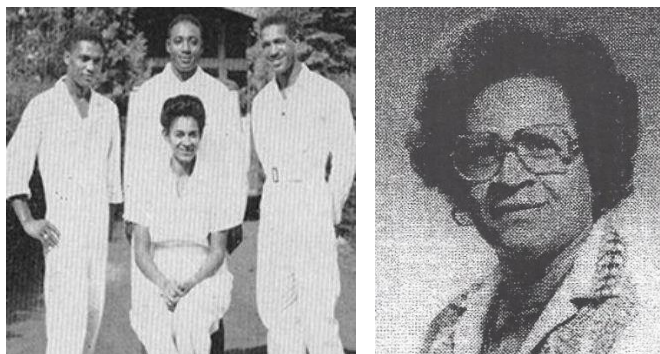

PLOT: Lake side 4 Garden – Lot 25A – Space 4

FIND-A-GRAVE: Dr. Alfreda Wilhelmina Johnson Webb,
<https://www.findagrave.com/memorial/138101586/alfreda-wilhelmina-webb>

CAREER: Veterinarian, educator, legislator

NOTABLE FOR: One of first two African-American woman veterinarians (1949); first woman graduate of Tuskegee university College of Veterinary Medicine in the school's inaugural class; first African-American woman legislator in North Carolina

BIOGRAPHICAL:

Larsen PH. Alfreda Johnson Webb, an African American pioneer. Our History of Women in Veterinary Medicine: Gumption, Grace, Grit, and Good Humor. [Littleton, CO]: Association for Women Veterinarians, 1997' pp. 36-38.

Whitaker SK. America's first African-American woman veterinarians: Alfreda Johnson Webb and Jane Hinton. Vet Herit. 2022 Dec;45(2):38-53.

Compiled by _____, December 13, 2023