

FIVE IRISHMEN, FIVE BROTHERS, FIVE VETERINARY SURGEONS

John E. Going

Foreword.....

Preface.....

Acknowledgments .....

Introduction.....

Chapter 1 James A. Going (1847–1884) .....

Practice in Ireland .....

Personal Life and Family .....

Practice in the United States .....

    Ogdensburg, New York .....

    New York, New York .....

Famous Cases and Horses.....

Endorsements and Testimonials .....

Veterinary Editor for Spirit of the Times .....

Professional Organizations and Academics.....

    Professional Organizations .....

    Academics and College Teaching.....

Credentials Scandal and Ethics.....

Entrepreneurial Career .....

    Veterinary Products .....

    Marketing of Veterinary Services and Products

    Veterinary Product Efficacy .....

    Veterinary Product Taxing.....

Demise .....

References.....

Chapter 2 William H. Going (1842–1900).....

Veterinary Education in Edinburgh .....

Veterinary Career in Ireland .....
America and the US Cavalry .....
First Appointment US Cavalry .....
Commercial Enterprises .....
Resignation from Army Service .....
Return to the US Cavalry .....
Spanish-American War .....
Improved Status for Cavalry Veterinarians .....
Examinations .....
Death and Interment .....
Efforts on Behalf of Veterinary Surgeons .....
Cavalry Post Assignments .....
Family .....
State Veterinarian .....
State Veterinarian's Salary .....
Private Practice and Entrepreneurial Activities in Kansas .....
Earning a Medical Degree .....
Drug Store and Veterinary Products Business .....
Mining Interests .....
References .....
Chapter 3 Samuel G. Going (1851–1877) .....
Veterinary Education in Edinburgh .....
Pursuit of a US Cavalry Appointment .....
Contributions and Cavalry Service in the West .....
Glanders Containment .....
Publications .....
Commissioned Status for Veterinary Surgeons .....
Private Practice .....
Drowning During Nez Perce Conflicts .....
Tributes .....
References .....

Chapter 4 John B. Going (1844–1884) .....

Medical Studies at University of Michigan .....

Horseshoe Patent Granted.....

Enrolled in Veterinary School .....

Army Appointment Sought.....

Veterinary Partnership Established.....

Political Leanings

Supporting the Veterinary Profession.....

Blissville Pleuropneumonia Scare .....

Joining the US Cavalry .....

Support for Commissioned Officers .....

Death and Burial .....

References.....

Chapter 5 Frederick W. Going (1849–1884).....

Going Family Connection.....

Education in Scotland .....

British Army Service .....

Equine Medical and Care Duties .....

Steeplechase and Flat Racing in India .....

“Paddy Going Rode the Pig” .....

Recounting Frederick’s Death .....

References.....

Appendices.....

About the Author .....